Ingredients for pet food manufacturers

Tasty and nutritious ingredients for all furry friends.

At Ardent Mills, we offer pet food ingredients fit for nourishing cats, dogs and other animals. We are always keeping a close eye on health and flavor trends in order to provide desirable, top-of-the-line ingredients to manufacturers across the nation.

Our broad portfolio of plant-based ingredients includes grains and pulses that are consistently monitored by farmers and experts to deliver you premier options, backed by a reliable supply chain. This ensures that our inherently non-GMO wheat, ancient grains, and pulses always meet your quality and performance expectations.
