

Pet Food and Nutrition

Ingredients for all pets and owners

Tasty and nutritious ingredients for all furry friends

At Ardent Mills, we're continually nourishing what's next. That's why we're investing in quality, plant-based ingredients suitable for the growing pet food category. Today's consumers are also today's pet parents, and they are spending more on feeding their pets ingredients they recognize and trust. In fact, the expected compounded annual growth rate for Organic Pet Food is +8.9% through 2028.<sup>1</sup>

We offer a broad portfolio that includes non-GMO wheats, ancient grains and pulses to support your pet food manufacturing operation. Products you can trust, proven quality and performance, a reliable supply chain, all backed by food safety and technical expertise — that's the Ardent Mills difference as a supplier partner.
